FORT HERRIMAN PRCA RODEO RETURNS JUNE 3-4

HERRIMAN—The annual Jordan Credit Union Fort Herriman PRCA Rodeo is returning as one of the favorite yearly events in Herriman on June 3rd and 4th.

The Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association (PRCA) boasts a star-studded lineup of riders in front of an expected sellout crowd. The two-night event will feature traditional competitions in bareback riding, saddle bronc riding, barrel racing, tie-down roping, steer wrestling, and bull riding.

“We thank our title sponsor, Jordan Credit Union, as well as our Rodeo Committee, for the effort that have put in to make this a first-class rodeo that meets the traditions and standards set by the PRCA,” said Anthony Teuscher, Herriman City’s Deputy Director of Parks, Recreation, and Events.

Announcer Matt Palmer (Koshkonong, Missouri) will make his first trip to Utah for the rodeo. He has traveled the rodeo circuit as a bull rider, bull fighter, entertainer, and announcer.

Rodeo clown Dalton Morris, a third-generation rodeo entertainer, will entertain with humorous antics, trick roping, and T-shirt launching.

A pre-event concert will be performed by country music band Crazy Coyote.

Tickets, still available at www.herriman.org/rodeo, are expected to sell out by the event’s start time.
